1. Where or how did you learn about this study tour?
2. Why are you interested in joining this study tour?
3. How much do you know about the WWII History in Asia?
4. Have you used the teachers' guide "Human Rights in the Asia-Pacific 1931-1945: Social Responsibility and Global Citizenship"? If yes, please state which lesson(s) and share with us some highlights of this experience.

5. With reference to the above mentioned teachers' guide, which issue/lesson do you consider more important for your students' learning and why? (If you have not yet used it, please still review the teachers' guide and let us know your opinion.
6. How do you think you can benefit students and/or teachers from your experience in this study tour?
7. Please express your views on the following comment:
"Governments of some victimized countries, such as China, have provided very little assistance to victims after the war, and there are cases in which some governments have committed human rights violation against their own people without offering any redress. Therefore, this demand of justice from Japan from the victims is not appropriate or such demands are just used for the purpose of Japan bashing."
